Volume Nine

1968 Georgian Pays Tribute to Mr. Hendrix.

Allen County Public Library
900 Webster Street
PO Box 2270
Fort Wayne, IN 46801-2270

This year the student body of Walter F. George High School was introduced to a new principal, Mr. Floyd J. Hendrix, Jr. Mr. Hendrix has inspired many changes during his first term here and has won the respect and admiration of the students, the faculty and the community. For his untiring efforts to raise the standards and to improve the program at George High School, we, the 1968 Georgian staff, consider it a privilege to dedicate the 1968 Georgian to our principal, Mr. Floyd J. Hendrix, Jr.

The essence of memories of a high school year are the constant, reoccurring happenings. Yet each year has its unique aspects setting it apart. The gem of memory is a store of many facets intermingling the traditional and new. The 1968 Georgian recalls a year of both. Quarter permits to cheer favorite homeroom . . . the innovative fire-aid? . . . the novel look of the Black Berets . . . All-Star Falcons in the current rage of basketball rivalries . . . Mad Dogs vs. Faculty: spirited youth against aged wisdom . . . Academy Actors spellbinding dramatization . . . the first year teacher's experienced aide. . . .

... the Chief's initiation of soccer ... full-fledged class projects; hoe, clip, rake ... the unique insights of a young couple ... an eighth grader's wonderment ... experimentation with modern gymnastic equipment ... "A" lunch during third period.

Mingled among the new impressions are remembrances of the constants of school life. Familiar surroundings . . . Seventy-five cents stag . . . the ancient spirit of Christmas . . . honors bestowed . . . the accustomed display of talent . . . rigors of club membership . . . the established exchange of the Homecoming Crown . . . traditional presentation of swords . . . annual buying of Roman slaves. . .

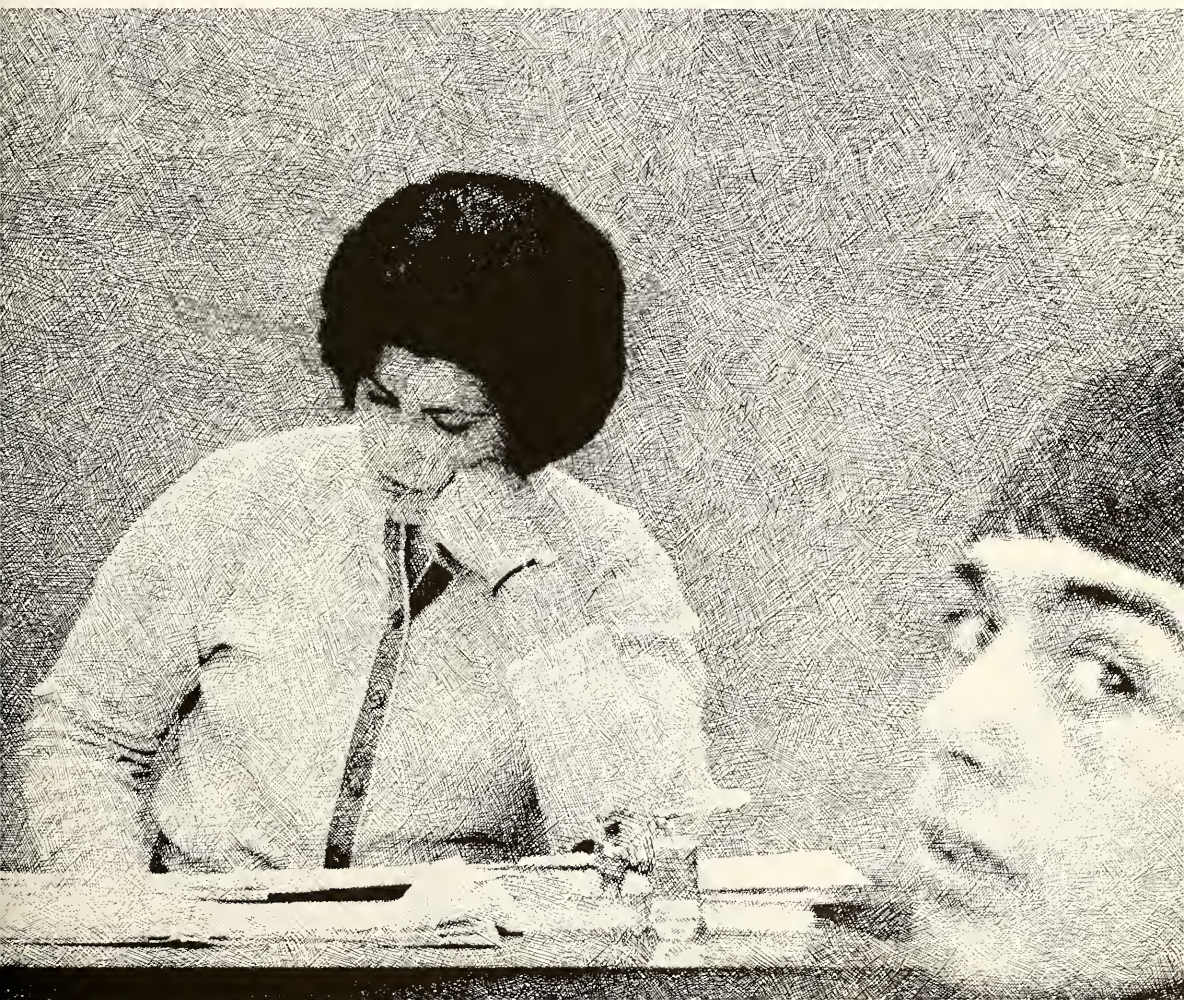

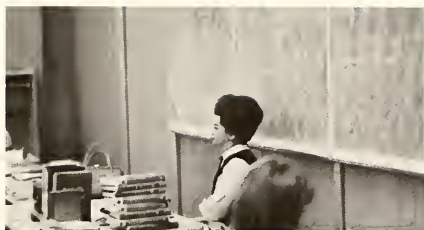

... customary classroom routine ... unending efforts to spark school spirit ... the trademark of the George coaches ... striving to create ... our charitable offerings ... the yearly season of thanks ... leisure ... the same old face.

Student Council

Adds New Projects to Traditional Activities

This year's Student Council has continued to sponsor its traditional programs. These activities include the Homecoming Dance and Homeroom Thanksgiving Baskets. Increased emphasis was placed on class projects. The 9th grade successfully completed a "Keep the Cafeteria Clean" week. The 10th grade supported "Feed a Friend," a branch of the Ira Jarrell Milk Fund. The 11th grade initiated a paper sale. And the 12th grade's project was a "Toys for Tots Campaign."

Various new activities accentuated the traditional ones. The Student Council selects monthly a teacher who has contributed to school functions. The first to receive the honor, "Teacher of the Month," was Mr. Gus Peterson, a new art teacher at George.

Care packages sent to Vietnam and the opening "soc hop," in honor of the football team, were also among the additions to the regular program.

The Student Council is composed of gradewide officers and homeroom presidents. To qualify for gradewide offices, candidates must make speeches before their class or student body and must have a "B" average. Selections are made by each grade for gradewide offices and by the student body for school wide offices.

Student Council inducts eighth grade officers.

Senior Civitan members Danny Paulk, Pam Carroll, and Sharon Stephens top rugged initiation off with an egg shampoo.

Big new things are in the offing for Walter George according to the Junior Civitan. These innovations include a cinder track for the field and glass backboards for the gym. Money for these projects has been saved through previous years but Christmas fruit cakes will be sold to attain extra funds.

Civitan initiated a large group of forty-five at its traditional fall activity at Perkerson Park. In order to become a member, one must be a junior or senior with a "C" average or better.

Coach Tom Harmon is the faculty advisor for the Walter F. George Junior Civitan. The Airport Civitan Club sponsors this chapter.

Co-Ed-Hi-Y

Provides Volunteers For March of Dimes Campaign

Under the sponsorship of Miss Armbrecht, Mrs. Pebworth and Mr. Peterson, the Co-Ed-Hi-Y Club is one of George's notable service clubs. The club is a chapter of National Co-Ed-Hi-Y and is under the supervision of Pate Bridges, YMCA director.

The club has directed a clothing drive at school for needy families in the area. Volunteers canvassed for the March of Dimes as well as helping implement the Vietnam Christmas Cards project.

A delegation for the George Club participated in the Hi-Y Breakfast at the Americana Motor Hotel preceding the Youth assembly. Members are eagerly anticipating the annual spring trip to Camp Waco.

Chaplain Steve Hackler leads a devotional to start the monthly meetings.

"This meeting will now come to order," directs Co-Ed-Hi-Y President Lynn Nelson.

Senior Y-Teens Barbara Brownlee, Pat Murphy and Judy Bales visit with Mrs. Bullard at Highview Nursing Home.

Y-Teens, sponsored by Miss Hice, is another of George's service clubs. It is directly coordinated with the central Y.W.C.A. Y-Teens members have participated in the annual affairs held at the central branch such as the Fall Festival of Nations and the Hanging of the Greens. The Y-Teens goal of growing in friendship with all peoples is admirably fulfilled by members who tutor underprivileged elementary school children under the direction of the Teenage Service Corp. Several girls have also spent many volunteer hours at neighboring Highview Nursing Home.

The club has recently divided into junior and senior groups. The Junior Y-Teens is composed of eighth and ninth graders and Senior Y-Teens is made up of upperclassmen. This allows the girls to choose service projects fitting their capabilities.

Safety Club

Safety Consciousness Goal of Club's Publicity Campaign

During Safety Week, the Safety Club tried to reduce hazards and make students and teachers safety conscious. Their poster contest and slogan campaign involved all homerooms. President Lynne Mathews, vice-president Genie Wise, recording secretary Barbara Lenderman, corresponding secretary Theda Bernard, and treasurer Peggy Patton, along with their sponsor, Mr. Epps, have worked to enlarge their membership to fifty. These members are students from all grade levels who are interested in safety at George High and the surrounding community.

Future Homemakers of America

Domestic Talents Perfected by FHA Members

FHA officers Peggy Walker, Debbie Scott, and Marsha Winn assist President Elizabeth Horton planning programs.

All girls enrolled in Home Economic classes at George were exposed to the Future Homemakers of America club. Those desiring outside work related to home economics became active members of the club. The Simplicity Pattern fashion show presented club members with ideas and inspiration for future individual projects. Home Economics students in the 8th, 9th and 10th were models of the new spring fashions.

As a service project, the club contributed a bush to the "beautify the school" campaign. The money was raised by sponsoring a dance in the fall.

Simplicity's "Tape Measure Fashion's" appeal to George future homemakers.

Future Teachers of America

Participate in District and State Conventions

F.T.A. members enjoy refreshments at a regular monthly meeting which feature speakers in the field of education.

The Walter F. George Chapter of the Future Teachers of America has had a busy year. The officers of this active group are Laura Buckner, president; Nilda Soto, vice-president; and Joyce Jones, secretary-treasurer.

Some of the numerous activities in which the F.T.A. has participated involved other chapters of the F.T.A. They again took part in the Fifth District Convention which was held in November with the George Chapter in charge of registration. Cindy Lance was nominated for vice-director of this convention. The George F.T.A. won the attendance prize which was a free trip to the state convention. In February members Nilda Soto, David Hughes, Pam Spears, and Laura Buckner with advisers Miss Evelyn Cawthon and Mrs. Celesta Fairley attended this state convention at Rock Eagle.

F.T.A. sponsors "Apple for the Teacher" as their display at P.T.A. club night.

The 1967-68 Georgian Staff had quite a time meeting deadlines and raising money to meet our goal, but we did it! Individual and combined effort was used to complete each section. Those experienced on the staff guided the new members in learning the skills of year-book journalism. Our annual sales topped any others in previous years, adding to the funds which we raised by sponsoring the annual Outstanding Seniors Dance.

This year's Georgian has many new dimensions including color pictures and a new screening device for the division pages. The design of the cover is always the biggest decision made and with a joint combination of ideas the staff turned out an originally designed cover with a fabric base.

The 1967-68 Falcon's View staff has strived diligently to keep the student body informed as well as entertained. The force behind the Falcon's View is Editor Zane McDaniel, who is receiving first hand experience as a newspaper man. Miss Lael, the faculty advisor, guides the hardworking staff. Staff members are competent in the fields of news, editorials, features, and sports. Staff members are assigned to particular fields but they are qualified to write for every category. Members of the faculty are contributors to the guest editorial column of the paper.

Providing students with opportunities to develop an increased sensitivity to the needs of others and an appreciation of what people can do for other people is the High School Red Cross' sustaining purpose. Many requests for service come to the Red Cross youth from Veterans and Military Hospitals, State and County Hospitals, Children's Homes, Homes for the Aged, Day Nurseries and others. By participation in these programs, students have an opportunity to grow in social responsibility and to respond to the needs of others.

At George High, the Red Cross Club has made and decorated 50 Christmas stockings for the 36th Evacuation Hospital in Vietnam, made 75 Flash cards for the mentally retarded adults and stuffed 26 animals for the Children's Home. The Club is now in the process of making scrap books and will make 100 tote bags for the hospitals. Directing these activities are Barbara Brownlee, president; Debbie Williams, vice-president; and Gay Irwin, secretary-treasurer.

Volunteers prepare material that Red Cross members will make into "tote" bags.

"Tote" Bags will be distributed to children's hospitals throughout the city.

French Club

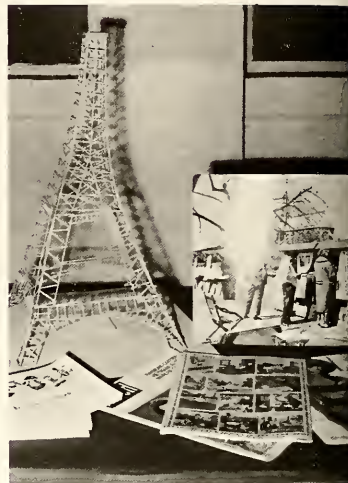

Studies French Language, Customs, and Culture.

French club meetings often held at members' homes provided opportunities to view films, sing songs and present skits all in French. Miss Nash sponsors the club with a membership of fifty French students. Many students who have finished their French courses continue to belong to the club to further their knowledge of French culture. Club officers are Peggy Patton, Barry Welsh, Nancy Eidson, Cindy Lance, and Jackie Cavender.

"Les Trois Petits Cochons" skit entertains French club members.

Spanish Club

"Christmas in Spain" Dinner Keynotes Years Enrichment Activities

Estas cosas son muy hermosas!

Alec Jones presents his sales talk to Miss Hice trying to make the club's candy fund raising project a success.

In order to further their knowledge of Spanish countries, people, and customs, the Spanish Club has staged enrichment activities. A Christmas party was held at the home of club president, Peggy Walker. Highlights of the party were carols sung in Spanish and Spanish food.

Other officers include second year students Marsha Winn, who is vice president, and Harriet Black, secretary. First year student, Gary Holcomb, is club treasurer. The club, numbering 35, is sponsored by the new Spanish teacher, Miss Smithberg.

Plans for sponsoring a dance, and a bake sale at Greenbriar Shopping Center are in the future as fund raising activities.

"Down you cur!"

Salutate Cives! With this greeting the Latin Club welcomed its members to an especially active school year. The Slave Day initiation added some thirty new members to the club and after the Initiation Banquet, held the same evening at the Instructional Services Center, the slaves entertained their masters with a talent show. The first year students, using their growing skills, serenaded many classes with carols in Latin before the Christmas holiday. Another banquet is being planned for club members in the spring.

The only requirement for membership is passage of one quarter of Latin. The club membership, numbering fifty-five, is led by President Steve Maddox. The other officers include Vice-President, Susan Croft; Secretary, Jeanie Bundy; and Treasurer, Kay Campbell. The Latin teacher, Miss Barbara Granade, is the sponsor.

Masters and slaves enjoy annual event.

How about a Christmas tree on this one?

Art Club members work preparing Christmas cards for mailing to Vietnam.

The purpose of the Art Club is to arouse and to aid in sustaining, a direct and lively interest in all forms of art.

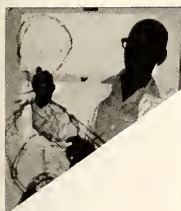

Art Club activities that the members were involved with for the past year include; making 1500 Christmas cards which were sent to Vietnam, touring several museums and craft shops, and taking field trips to scenic areas for sketching exercises.

Periodically, guest lecturers are invited to attend the meetings. The primary purpose for lectures is to help stress the esthetic relationship to be found among the works of artists separated by space, time, and media; and the understanding of art as an important element in the cultural development of mankind throughout the ages.

The Drama Club informs the PTA about a typical day at school.

The Drama Club, sponsored by Mrs. Stickle and Miss Grier, is a fairly new venture at George. Despite its newness, it has been involved in many of the school's activities. Part in the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs, sponsoring a dance, and ushering at Theatre Atlanta have kept some sixty members very busy.

President David Brinson and the other officers, Judy Williamson, vice-president; Nina Newman, secretary; Linda Smith, treasurer; now have plans for producing a play, "BLITHE SPIRIT" in the spring. Lee Eltzroth is the reporter for this productive club.

Requirements for membership in the Drama Club are very liberal. Any student, grades eight through twelve, who is interested in drama, is invited to join.

Developing Future Leaders for Marketing and Distribution.

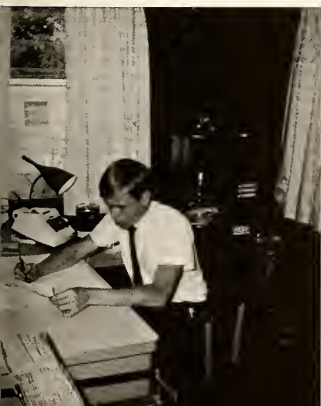

One of the most forward looking clubs at George is our chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America. D. E. C. A. helps its members "To develop a respect for education in marketing and distribution which will contribute to vocational competence."

The George D. E. C. A. Chapter has taken part in many special activities. Among them are Officer Training Conference in Macon, Georgia; President Recognition Dinner at the Atlanta Marriott; Employer-Employee Banquet held at Regency Hyatt House; District Leadership Conference held at Russell High School in East Point; and the State Leadership Conference held at the Atlanta Biltmore.

Robert Wood addresses the annual D. E. C. A. Convention.

A D. E. student, Dennis Christain assumes a position in the business world.

What do you say, Mr. Bones??

After a slow start last year, the Science Club has built a solid organization, affiliated with the national organization, Science Clubs of America.

The goal of the Science Club is "To increase the knowledge of science, to learn to perfect skills in science, to offer service in our community and nation, to understand the importance of science in the lives of individuals, and to help carry out the program of Science Clubs of America." All club members must have a "B" average in science courses attempted and an overall grade average of "C". Members who are Juniors and Seniors must be taking or have taken at least one elective course in science.

Mrs. Reese, a biology teacher in her fourth year at George, sponsors this twenty-member club. Officers are president, Michael Etter; vice-president, Bennie Amerson; secretary, Sydney Anderson; and treasurer, Steve Maddox.

The goals of the Falconette chapter are "To create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to serve, to promote leadership, and to instill exemplary qualities of character in the students of Walter F. George High School."

Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Bolin, English teachers at George, sponsor the Falconette chapter of the National Junior Honor Society. The qualifications for membership are exhibition of superior qualities of scholarship, character, citizenship, leadership, and service. Members, numbering forty-seven, come from the ninth and tenth grades. Officers are Jami Reeves, president; Joy Hill, vice-president; Carol Collins, secretary; and Debbie Weldon, treasurer.

Perfects Musical Excellence in a Variety of Performances.

"Da-Da-Da-Dum"

Mr. Leonard Altieri is the sponsor for this string group whose aim is "To promote musical excellence and understanding through the medium of performances." The orchestra, composed of twenty-two members, has played in large groups, ensembles, and solos at such functions as P.T.A., club meetings, and autumn and spring concerts.

To qualify for membership in the George High Orchestra one must have studied a stringed instrument at least one year in elementary school. However, most of the present members have played from two to four years in elementary school. The concertmaster of the orchestra is Nancy Eidson. Principal players are Jeff Lavender on viola, Susan Cages on cello, Wanda Griffin on violin, and Bryan Galloway on bass. The librarian is Eddie Gibbs.

The string quartet, a special orchestral group, consists of Nancy Eidson, Peggy Patton, Jeff Lavender, and Susan Cages.

The Music Department of George consists of six choirs. The 8th grade special choir, with President Gay Irwin and Vice-President Michele Bradley, consists exclusively of eighth graders. Choir One officers Gay Bently and Pam Stephens and Choir Three President Susan Shipmen encourage the members of these mixed choirs to outstanding performances. Sybil Proux is president of Choir Seven, our all-girls choir. Choir Five, composed of Upperclassmen, responds to the leadership of their President, Cynthia Keen. Choir Nine is the 11th and 12th grades advanced choir with President Judy Sorrow.

Frequent trips have kept these choirs busy in the past and will continue to occupy their time this spring. During the Christmas season all choirs participated in the P. T. A. Program and a school-wide assembly. The Girls' Choir sang at Highview Nursing Home while Choir One traveled to Wesley Woods Apartments, a home for the elderly. Concerts were presented at Lenox Square and Stewart Lakewood shopping centers. Plans for the future include a variety show in March, a Spring Concert in May, and music programs to be presented at local churches.

Falcon Band

Talented Performances Keep Spirits High

The task of a high school band is a very difficult one. Half-time shows at football games, special assemblies, and pep rallies are only a few of the major ones. The Walter F. George Band has done an outstanding job of accomplishing these tasks.

Fifty-five is not a large number of band members, but with much practice and good leadership this small band has been made a very effective one. Much credit is due to band director Wayne G. Goggins, but much is also due to student leaders. Captain Barry Welsh, First Lieutenant Mike Cavallin, Second Lieutenant David Brinson, Sergeant Major Danny Talley, and Drum Major Joe Duren have put forth much effort to make this band the best it could possibly be.

The Georgettes are the school's own distinctive pep squad. The group, under the direction of Captain Sheila Baldwin, practiced diligently to originate and perfect routines. "Dixie" and "The In Crowd" were two of the routines carried out in conjunction with the band. Plans are now being made for try-outs for positions in next year's Georgettes. Those aspiring to be Georgettes are judged on the basis of appearance, co-ordination and poise. New uniforms, selected in the summer, added a professional touch, to half-time performances.

As a service project in the fall the Georgettes collected money for the Leukemia Drive.

"Main street! Who's our map reader?"

Following an ancient custom, Cadet Lt. Colonel David Bankston receives saber from his mother.

Cadet officers take oath of office.

On October 24, 1967, the Walter F. George R.O.T.C. held its first Sabre Day, beginning an annual tradition. The occasion was one of solemnity. Sabre Day is when the officers receive their swords. This is a great honor because the presentation of the sword symbolizes the many hours of hard work that the cadets have put into the military program.

The cadet officers are not chosen at random. Each cadet officer is chosen on a basis of academic grades and conduct grades. The officers are usually chosen from the third year cadets but, the military is only in its second year causing the officers to be chosen from second year cadets. The sword is presented to the officers by their mothers following a custom that had its origin in ancient Greece.

Each cadet officer is allowed to choose a sponsor for the entire school year. This sponsor may be chosen from any grade. These sponsors receive the same rank as the cadet officers.

There were many visiting dignitaries present at George's Sabre Day including many retired veterans from the different parts of the state. The oath of office was administered by Mr. Floyd J. Hendrix, our principal, to the cadet officers as the entire student body looked on. After the oath, the officers returned to their positions and command to witness the pass in review. The band played marching music for the cadets while the battalion marched past the reviewing stand. A reception was given at the conclusion of the ceremony for the officers and their guests.

Fired Up Falcons Prepare For the Brown Rebels.

Just see if you can catch me!

The 1967-68 football season was a very successful one for the George Falcons. After dropping their first game to the Northside Tigers, 27-0, the Falcons gained momentum and experience and scored three successive victories by whitewashing Roosevelt, 21-0, Sylvan, 14-0 and East Atlanta, 21-0.

A big highlight was the homecoming victory over Bass, 7-6. This was the first homecoming game ever won by a Falcon team. Another first for George High was their defeat over Brown, 14-0.

Near the end of the season George faced Carver High with the Milk Bowl in range. This was a very crucial game, and even though George was defeated, the Falcons proved they were tough.

George faced Fulton, their arch rival, in the last game of the season. Although George came out on the short end of the score, it was a closely fought game. At the end of the season George High had five wins and four losses, a very good finish for a tough year.

This season's captains were Bobby Flemmons, David Bankston, and Clint Dickerson, all seniors and outstanding players. Coach Kell's feeling toward this season is that "this has been the most pleasant season I have ever coached. The senior players was the main key because they carried great leadership."

B-Team Shows Varsity

Potential, by George!

The B-team under the coaching of Gary Wiesner played their way to a victorious season with four wins and one loss. Coach Wiesner, new at George, has adapted well to his position.

The B-team came from behind in four games to win with the Brown defeat highlighting the season. Their only loss was to Dykes, who was undefeated. Of the twelve touchdowns scored by the team, eleven were scored by John Fitzgerald, a second-year B-team player. This set a school record and also marked the first time George has had a strong B-team. The school's football hopes look promising as these players prepare to move up to varsity positions.

The defeat of Bass and Brown highlighted the 8th grade season along with valiant effort in their other games. Headed up by Coach Harmon, the 8th grade team learned Varsity techniques and learned to apply these techniques on the gridiron. Although the 8th grade team was a small one, they hit with the potential of the Varsity with outstanding players such as Tommy Langford, Garry Moody, and Mike Green doing the ball handling and Art Marler, James Carlson, and Kim Bankston holding the line. These 8th graders are well on the road to becoming Varsity football players.

The 1967-68 basketball season was highlighted by the valiant effort of a young team, led by two seniors, Bobby Flemons and David Bankston. Bobby Flemons, uncontested most valuable player, set a single game record of 45 points. The younger members also gained needed experience that will benefit them next year. Although the season as a whole was not a winning one, it was highlighted in the aspects of individual skill and second effort combined for synchronized teamwork. With the return of 10 of 12 varsity members; Freshman Terry Lester, Sophomores Lance Kennedy, Nelson Canady, Chris Stephens, Johnny Caldwell, Tommy Martin, and Juniors Jephath Cephus and John Dawson, next year's record will undoubtedly be a winning one.

"Oh, I'm not that good!"

If one were asked to define in one word the ideas expressed by the words sacrifice, work, dedication, joy, and despair, the word would be athletics. The girls basketball team at George High is fully aware of this.

The pre-season games ended with a 4-1 record and an invitation to the Bass Christmas Tournament. However the Ladies from George were eliminated by North Fulton in the first round.

The sub-region opened on a disastrous note with two straight losses to Carver and Brown. The team rebounded, though, and finished the sub-region play with a 5-7 record.

The girls won their first game ever in the city tournament by beating Roosevelt. But the note of frustration returned the second night when the lady Falcons were eliminated by arch-rival Fulton.

Valuable Game Experience Gained by J. V. Teams

Hoping to fill the varsity squad's shoes in future years, the B-Team and eighth grade cagers increased their power in ball handling and shooting throughout a season of frustration. The B-Team ended the season with a disappointing record while the eighth grade salvaged 1 win out of 8 games. The B-Team squad was lead by Johnny Caldwell and Glorious Foreman's accurate eye proved to be the driving force of the eighth grade team. The '68 season did not prove to be a winning one but the experience gained will be an asset in the future.

Rebounding, although not directly apparent in the score, is an important factor in victory as Art Marler clearly shows.

Individual Efforts Combined To Produce Team Victory.

Football and basketball are the major sports at George, but there are other sports which deserve recognition. Baseball, tennis, and cross-country are very popular and important to the athletic department. This year, with the lack of last year's senior members, cross-country is rebuilding for future competition. The baseball team, after a good season last year, should be at the top of the league, while tennis should again have a profitable season on the courts.

1968 Homecoming Queen

Homecoming 1968 was a momentous occasion. The blue and white decorations carried out the theme of "Rhapsody in Blue." The decorations, supplied by the art department, were arranged beautifully throughout the gym by the Student Council. Flower arrangement of blue crepe paper were placed on each table and on the red-carpeted stairs. Streamers of varying shades of blue and hand made blue corsages, carried by members of the Homecoming Court, further carried out the motif.

Members of the Homecoming Court selected by popular vote of the student body were escorted by Varsity football players. Each thrilled member of the court, especially the seniors, anxiously awaited the announcement that Elaine Parker would reign at 1968 Homecoming Queen. Miss Nancy Prickett, last year's queen, crowned Elaine as the entire court received the audience's applause.

Outstanding Seniors

Honored For Accomplishments

Janice Williams has participated actively in many phases of the school program. Athletic endeavors are her particular forte. She was a B-Team cheerleader and has been a Varsity cheerleader for the past two years. The Varsity basketball and tennis teams have benefited from Janice's spirited participation. Serving the school, Janice has been a member of student council and various other clubs. Energetic involvement combined with a friendly and outgoing personality make her an excellent choice for the honor of Miss George High.

Scholarship and service keynote Melvyn Richardson's high school life. He has served in student government and is currently president of the Senior class. Membership in the Beta Club and National Honor Society attest to his academic achievement. An officer in military, Melvyn's leadership has helped train this year's color guard. A quiet dignity, respected by students and faculty alike, make Melvyn an outstanding recipient of the title of Mr. George High.

 Alec and Audrey—"68".

The 1968 Georgian is now yours. The staff has worked countless hours to give this annual a distinction which the individual George student will appreciate. Each page is more than just a grouping of pictures and copy. These pages are inanimate impressions of the events in a year gone by—a year to be remembered.

Special thanks are extended to Miss Andrews and Mr. Peterson. Their volunteered guidance gave the staff valuable knowledge of yearbook production.

Our advisor Miss Eustis, the '68 staff and myself leave you with—"memories of '68."
